Financial Arrangements:

Tuition and fees are due and payable prior to registration and the student whose signature appears below is solely responsible for prompt payment. In the event additional tuition or fee charges are incurred as a result of changes to registration or participation in service activities payment in full must be received within 30 days. I, the undersigned understand that if my account should become delinquent at any time, failure to make payment of any indebtedness to the University when due is considered sufficient cause, until debt is settled with verified funds, to: bar the student from classes, withhold diploma, grade reports or transcript of records, and dismiss the student. I further understand that if my account is forwarded to a collection agency, I will be responsible for covering collection costs and reasonable attorney fees. Interest is charged on all delinquent accounts at a rate of .03% computed daily or 10% per year. In addition, I hereby authorize the university to check my credit history and, verify other information on this agreement, and provide credit information for use in connection with the review or collection of any accounts during or after my time as a student. In the event I fail to repay my account balance, I hereby waive my right to notice of such default, presentment and dishonor, as well as any right to any available statute of limitations. Initials: _____
